Engage with NACBH

The National Association for Children's Behavioral Health (NACBH) is pleased to invite you to attend the 2026 Impact Symposium, May 19-20 in Providence, Rhode Island. This conference is where rising executives and seasoned CEOs come together to strengthen the bench, sharpen their vision, and build the skills needed for tomorrow's challenges. The conference is an invaluable opportunity for you to connect with your target audience — executives and director-level staff.

NACBH believes in the power of collaboration. Our sponsors are not just supporters, but partners in shaping the future of children's behavioral health. Sponsors are integral in providing rich content and invaluable learning opportunities to keep behavioral health leaders innovating. NACBH offers a range of sponsorship packages, each providing unique benefits and opportunities. NACBH invites you to join us for this interactive gathering of forward-thinking leaders within children's behavioral health systems. Your involvement will not only enrich the conference but also contribute to the evolution of our field.

Conference Overview

PARTNERSHIP BENEFITS

Partnering for Progress

At NACBH, we are committed to transforming the delivery of children's behavioral health care. By sponsoring an NACBH event, you will have the opportunity to help drive progress in the field while accomplishing your marketing objectives and directly engaging with your target audience. At our conference, you won't find yourself lost in a sea of faces. Instead, you'll have the chance to engage in in-depth discussions, forge valuable connections, and exchange ideas with some of the industry's top decision-makers, all in an atmosphere conducive to productive collaboration and relationship building.

- Access to key decision-makers
- Opportunity to showcase products or services in a focused group setting
- Increased visibility and brand exposure
- Opportunities for thought leadership
- Chance to make a difference
